MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR:

I am acquainted with some 13 senators and 17 congressmen. I have had no occasion to renew any acquaintances since coming with CIA except for General Smith with Stuart Symington and Francis E. Walter. I also had John Thomas Taylor, legislative officer of the American Legion contact Mr. Walter after the investigation of General Smith's "Communist infiltration in government" statement; and I took Mrs. Edith Nourse Rogers, an old friend, to meet [redacted] 25X1

The senators whom I have met or been on tours with when Mr. Patterson was Assistant Secretary of War or whom I handled for General Clark overseas are: Hugh Butler, Everett Dirksen, Guy Gillette, Harley Kilgore, William F. Knowland, Herbert Lehman, Mike Mansfield, Burnet Maybank, Mike Monroney, Wayne Morse, John O. Pastore, John J. Sparkman, and Stuart Symington.

The congressmen are: John J. Allen, Jr., Lee E. Allen, Overton Brooks, Clarence J. Brown, William L. Dawson (negro), James Devereux, Michael Feighan, Walt Horan, Paul Kilday, Arthur Klein, George P. Miller, Leroy Johnson, Edith Nourse Rogers, John J. Rooney, Dewey Short, Robert L. Sikes, and Francis E. Walter.
